

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 10.

Judge Hour has published in the July number of the North American Review a correspondence, of as late a date as 1883, between himself and Mr. Speed, who was At torney General at the time Mrs. Surratt was murdered, in which he requests Mr. Speed to deny President Johnson's charge that he, Holt, had withheld from him, Johnson, a petition, signed by five members of the court martial by whose decree the unfortunate old lady was hanged, recommending the commutation of her death sentence to imprisonment for life, and in which Mr. Speed declines granting that request. Judge Holt is now the sole survivor of the men who were parties to Mrs. Surratt's murder, and that the memory of that cowardly crime still haunts him, is proved by the fact of his publishing the correspondence referred to twep. ty three years after that sickening outrage upon justice was committed. It is said that Judge Holt cannot sleep without a light in his room. No wonder. "We catch it here," as Col. Ingersoll says, as well as hereafter. The part Gan, Hancock took in the crime, small as it was, helped in no slight degree to defeat him, for, knowing, as he did, that the sentence was a crime, he should have resigned rather than supervised its execution.

REV. DR. GRAY, of Chicago, assistant sec retary of the Freedman's Aid Society, in a sermon he preached in Indianapolis last Sunday, said: "If the people of the South now have the disposition to help the negro, they never could have had the disposition to oppress him. Help therefore for him must come from the North. Under the pre vailing conditions to the South it is absurd to expect an honest vote and a fair count there. The ignorance of the negroes of the South is the result of the solid democratic South." This utterance, as was natural, so provoked many of the congregation that they walked out of the church. There is no doubt of the fact that though the mission of the founder of the Christian religion was one of peace and good will toward men, Northern white, and Southern negro, preachers have done more to perpetuate and foment animosity and strife between the pecple of the North and South, and between the white and black people of the South, than all the infidels and atheists and agnostics in both sections of the country com-

AT THE convention of the Society of Christian Endeavor, in Chicago last week, it promise among the Virginia republicans on was shown that of the population of all the larger cities of the country hardly a twen tieth attended Divine worship, and that the remainder are, in fac', no better than heathen. That the inhabitants of the smaller towns and the country approximate this condition is apparent to all critical ob-servers. And yet, with this patent fact be-agree to such a settlement, but suggested it; fore all eyes, hundreds of thousands of dollars and hundreds of missionaries are sent out of the country every year to christianize the heathen in foreign lands. A wise man always provides for his own household before that of other people, and what is wise in one man is wise in a community of men and in a nation.

MR. POWDERLY, chief of the knights of labor, has written another letter to the members of his order; this time advising them to stop using coffee and to boycott all sellers of that article until the coffee corner be broken. Coffee is just as palatable to a workingman and his family as it is to the rich man, and, as it is a tonic as well as a stimulant, it is more of a necessary to the former than to the latter, because the latter can resort to the use of more expensive substitutes. That | but that the republicans would certainly the coffee corner should be broken, goes without saying, but it is right bard that in the nomination was made that he would order to break it poor people should be desupport it, and would do so. Mr. prived of one of the few cheap luxuries of Cullom, on the contrary, had with-life. It is therefore not probable that Mr. drawn his support from it. Of Mr. Ridorder to break it poor people should be delife. It is therefore not probable that Mr. Powderly's advice will be adopted to any considerable extent.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA the registration for the November election is over. Due notice, according to law, was given in all the precincts, of the opening and closing of the books. But notwithstanding that, the result days past taking depositions respecting the shows that over one hundred thousand identity of certain claimants under the negroes failed to register. Of course, even if they should want to vote for Mr. Harrison next fall, which is by no means a certainty, they will be unable to do so, as will be the Pennsylvania voters who have failed to pay their capitation tax. But when the democrats shall carry South Carolina the Northern republicans will say it was because of democratic bulldozing.

MR. THURMAN has been invited to make a speech in Georgia, but has not yet accepted the invitation. It would be awkward for him to do so, in view of the fact that he grossly and gratuitously insulted General Jackson, of Georgia, for saying that the South, during the war between the States, fought for constitutional government, and that in after years, when passion and prejudice shall have been dissipated, and cool, calm and deliberate reason resumed its sway, Mr. Davis, and not Mr. Lincoln, will be looked upon as the defender of such gov

WASHINGTON, D. C., Ju y 10, 1888 In the House yesterday Mr. Mills said, addressing the republicans: "Let me tell you, and don't you forget it, we are going to give you an opportunity to vote on the sugar trusts before you get away from here, and every one of you will vote on the side of the trusts, too." As a means to take the wind out of the democratic sails, Mr. Sherman, as soon as the Senate opened to-day, introduced a resolution instructing the finance committee to investigate the sugar

The report published in some of the Northern newspapers to the effect that Mr. Randall intends going to Europe at the close of this session of Congress and to stay there until after the Presidential election is incorrect. Respecting the postoffice at Owens, King George county, Va., about which there has been a great equabble in the lower end of that county, it is learned at the postoffice department that the Mr. Owens, the deposed and the postoffice are the started as a country and the started are the started as a country and the started are the started as a country and the started are the started as a second as a postmaster, is an active republican, that he | 5th of August. was removed by the 1st Assistant Postmaster General, and Mr. Fitzhugh, a good and true democrat, appointed in his place without consultation with Gen. Lee, the representative from that district; that Mr. Bivens, a democratic lawyer of the county, brought a petition here from citizens of the county, among them several who have always heretofore been considered democrats, asking for the removal of the democrat, against whom there are no charges, and the reinstatement of the republican; and finally, that General Lee says he will not ask to have a democrat removed to give place to a republican unless upon the recommendation of the democratic committee of the county, to whom the matter has been referred.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Daniel intrcduced a bill to appoint a board to examine and report the five best obtainable sites for the fabrication of guns and armor plates; also a bill authorizing certain departments and bureaus of the government to make exhibits at the Virginia agricultural, mechanical and tobacco exposition. The first of these bills makes the board referred to consist of the Secretary of the Navy and four naval officers, and provides that one of the sites be located in Virginia.

The House to day at an early hour re sumed the consideration of the tariff bill, the section under debate being that on rice. Mr. Mills says he thinks that after the wool schedule and liquor sections shall be com-pleted, the republicans will be disposed to let a vote be taken. Mr. Randali doesn't hesitate to declare his intention of voting against the bill, and says that Mr. Sowden, of Pennsylvania, Messrs. Merriman and Greeman, of New York, Pidecck, of New Jersey, and Foran, of Ohio, all democrate, will vote with him, and that Mr. Fitch, of New York, is the only republican who will vote for the bill.

Daniel Lichliter, for whose place as postmaster at Woodstock, Virginia, Senator Riddieberger's home, a democrat was nominated yesterday, is a republican, if not one of "the deepest dye," and though the term for which he was appointed expired last May, his successor was only nominated yesterday. The most pronounced mugwump can find no fault with Mr. Cleveland for making the nomination referred to, as Mr. Lichliter has not only held the place during the entire term for which he was appointed by a republican President, but during almost the entire term of the present democratic administra-

The Senate to-lay, after morning business, took up the Canadian fisheries treaty, Mr. Hoar, of Massachtsetts, making a long speech in opposition to the ratification of the treaty. To show what little interest the English, or any other government, has in the matter, it is only necessary to say that the diplomatic gallery had but one occupant during the delivery of the speech.

GAZETTE's correspondent, this morning, about the Fuller case, said the Senate had held no executive session since the nomination was reported; that the nomination was on the calendar, subject to being called on the charge of having stolen a writing up at any time in executive session ; that he believed it would be confirmed, but not without a prolonged debate, though he did not believe that either Edmunds, Hoar or Ingalls would filibuster to prevent a vote, attempt to draw party lines on it. He said Mr. Farwell had told the President before dleberger's action on it, he said that Senator had told him be hoped it would be confirmed without the necessity of his vote. "If the confirmation depends upon Riddle-berger's vote," he said, "I don't think it will be confirmed."

Mr. John St. Clair Brookes, formerly of Alexandria, but now a member of the bar of this city, has been in Alexandria for several French Spoliation Claims bill. Among the claims referred to are those of Abram Hewes, Ricketts & Newton, Wm. Hartshorn & Sons, Isaac McPherson, Marine Insurance Com-pany, Joseph Deau, Nathan Wattles, Wm. Wilson, James Wilson, Fletcher & Otway, George Taylor, John Janney and Shreve & Law, all of Alexandria. The Court of Claims, before which these claims will be tried, has adjourned until October.

Intelligence here from the Eastern Shore of Virginia is to the effect that the democrats of Accomack county have elected delegates to their Congressional convention who will vote for the nom-ination of Mr. Blackiston, of their county, and that those of Northampton will support Mr. G. C. Kendall, of their county for the nomination. Among the visitors to Marshall Hall last Sunday were a small party of Chinese. One of them mis-taking a well-known republican of this city for a democrat, walked-up to him with a roll of money in his hand and said, "Me bettee you thully-five dollar Hallison be elected." The man he addressed said, 'You had better take care what you are doing. The democrats have the treasury and all the machinery of the government in their hands, and it will be hard to best them." A Bloody Affray.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 10 -Laurei Fork meeting house, in Whitely county, Tenn. was the scene Sunday of a terrible tragedy. It was a collision between the Rose and Fusion claus while services were in progress. A feud had been in existence between Michael Rose and one of the Fuston boys for some time over $5 which the former accused the latter of stealing from him. A few weeks ago Fuston waylaid Rose and seriously wounded him with a Winchester rifle. Some time after that Rose shot at Fuston from ambush and clipped off one ear. From that time on the feud grew stronger and last week both parties, backed by a large number of friends, on either side, laid in a liberal supply of shot guns and Winchester rifles, and a collision became only a matter of time. It came Sunday morning, and just as the minister of the little church was announcing his text a volley of firearms was discharged just outside. The worship pers were thrown into a state of intense excitement and many women fainted. Outside the battle raged fiercely between the two factions and when the smoke cleared away, it was found that Ewell Lawson and his son John, aged 13, belonging to the Rose faction were dead, having been fairly riddled with buckshot and that three Fuston boys, Tom, John and Euos, and John Porter, belonging to the other side, were seriously and perhaps fatally wounded. A dozen others, whose names could not be ascertained, were more or less seriously wounded.

It consists of a sea of molten black glass, agitated at the moment of cooling in ragged waves of fantastic shapes. These lava waves or ridges are from ten to twelve feet high with combing crests. This lava flow is about forty miles long from northeast to southwest and from one to ten miles wide. For miles on all sides the country is the most desolate that can be imagined. It has been literally burned up. It consists of fine white ashes to any depth, which, so far, has been dug down. To the north of the lava flow, and lying in a country equally desolate and arid, the surveyors have come upon the ruins of Gran Guiyra, known already to the early Spanish ex plorers, but which have been visit ed by white men less often even than the mysterious ruins of Palenque in Central America. A woman who had been ill-treated by her husband, and had left him, and was suing for al to return and live with him as his wife on his putting in the hands of a trustee a note for $5,000 payable to her after the death of her husband. Shortly after the carrying out of this agreement the husband died where upon his executors refused to pay the note, on the ground that there was no valid con sideration in law. The court decided against the widow, giving as reasons "that to give a man the fellowship and communion of a wife is not a service which the wife can sell or the busband buy. Perhaps a husband can hire his wife to do anything for him which a servant can be hired to do, or can buy of her anything that is the subject of barter; but a servant cannot be hired to fill the marital relation, and the fellowship of wife is not an article of trade between husband and wife." It seems that the courts are not agreed on this construction of the law, as a similar bargain to the one der notice has been held good by the New York Court of Appeals.
